

The purpose of this e-mail is to voice opposition to the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) attempt to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, this would weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law which I as a Hoosier have benefited by the law's protection. I do not want my privacy invaded by telemarketers again and I strongly urge the FCC to dismiss this attempt by the CBA.